

Violent Event Response Coverage Indiana Insurance™ School Program

Over the last several years, violent events at schools, even though rare, have become a significant concern for even the best schools. To help our school customers recover successfully in the aftermath of such events, we offer expanded liability coverage that assists schools in coping with possible additional expenses.

Our extension, Violent Event Response Coverage, provides coverage without regard to fault for certain

- medical expenses (excess);
- funeral expenses;
- death benefits;
- personal and group counseling services;
- wages of temporary personnel;
- professional public relations consultant services;
- loss of income;
- rental of substitute premises; and
- security services.
